

A NEED

I need someone who can express -
Of love - of joy - and tenderness.
A depth of mind he'll have inside -
His thoughts to me he will not hide.

I need someone who's close at hand -
A man who deeply understands,
A love so great and very true,
So near and dear and ever new.

I need someone's who's sweet and kind -
A man who has a strength of mind,
And wants to share and likes to give,
A man who loves the life we live!

I need someone to care for me -
Through health and wealth - eternity.
When times get harder just ahead,
I need a man whom I can wed!
